Cancellation Policy

• All flights are non-refundable and non-transferable.

Terms and Conditions

- Rates include fare and tax. Rates do not include baggage fees, seat assignment fees, or any additional services requiring a fee collected by the airline at check-in.
- Program earnings used will not be refunded for cancellations, changes, airline price decreases, or the reduction of the number of travelers in your party.
- It is not permitted to substitute one traveler in place of another or any change made to the name of a traveler (e.g. a change from `J. Smith` to `John Smith`). You will need to enter passenger names to match government issued ID/passport during the booking process.
- If you do not show up for your flight, you will forfeit the entire value of the ticket and any remaining flights on the ticket will be cancelled.
- All other changes to a reservation constitute a revision and are subject to an airline change fee. You must work directly with the airline on these changes prior to your departure.
- Airlines regularly change the schedules for their flights, it is your responsibility to check your flight information for the most up to date information. Experiences Marketplace has no control over airline schedule changes.
- You are responsible to ensure all foreign entry requirements are fulfilled and that your travel documents are current, such as passports and/or entry visas.
- Electronic confirmation and documentation will be sent to the e-mail provided in the contact information during the booking process.
